

Piloting 'Choices & Decisions'- an interactive HIV & AIDS board game for young people.

SUMMARY REPORT

Catherine M. Moleni & Mairi E. MacDonald

July, 2007

Pilot funded by Concern Worldwide

Acknowledgments

The following people and institutions must be thanked for their invaluable advice and support throughout the pilot phase of 'Choices & Decisions':

Concern Worldwide staff in Dublin and Malawi, with special thanks to Breda Gahan, Maurice Sadlier, Fiona Edwards and Lucrezia Kuchande for providing funding for the pilot and providing logistical support and encouragement; Ministry of Education, with particular thanks to Oscar Mponda, Desk Officer for HIV and AIDS and Lindewe Chide; Divisional Manager for South East Secondary Division, Mr G.S. Mafuta; District Education Managers for Zomba Urban and Zomba Rural, Mr. Alofandika and Mr Sanita; the Coordinating PEA and staff of Mponda Teacher Development Centre and Mponda Primary School.

We would also like to thank YONECO for their ongoing support, with a special mention to Lucius Chilipo who provided local expertise and assistance throughout the pilot.

Grateful thanks also goes to the 30 dedicated facilitators who worked hard throughout the pilot phase. Their commitment and enthusiasm was greatly appreciated and a continual reminder why this game should go beyond the pilot phase. Thanks also has to be extended to all the young people who played 'Choices & Decisions'. Without their enthusiasm the pilot would simply not have taken place.
